

Use of Surplus Commodities

The school meals program shall take full advantage of any surplus commodities as provided by the U.S. Department of Agriculture guidelines. The amount of these items that can be expected is based on the number of student meals served and the annual appropriation made by Congress.

Adopted February 28, 1968

Revised August 16, 1976

Revised May 23, 1984

Revised March 12, 2003