

Advanced College Placement

Advanced placement courses may be offered by the District if a sufficient number of students are qualified and desire to take a particular course and upon the availability of a staff member qualified to teach the course.

The curriculum followed in each advanced placement course shall be that which is prescribed by the College Board.

Adopted September 12, 1984

Revised April 26, 1989

Reviewed August 24, 2005

Formatted